Elizabeth Funke, M.S.N.

Philosophy of Care

My philosophy of care is to utilize preventive health care and health care maintenance in treating the whole person with emphasis on patient education to autonomously make decisions and perform self care.
I specialize in treating complicated, chronic wounds; urostomies, ileostomies and colostomies, as well as fecal and urinary incontinence.

Clinical Interests

My clinical interests include gastrointestinal surgery from the preoperative through the postoperative spectrum of care. Treatment of ostomies and open wounds, management and insertion/removal of intestinal feeding tubes. I am also qualified and skilled as Family Nurse Practitioner in a family practice with experience ranging from pediatrics through geriatrics. My interests include internal medicine and neurointerventional medicine.
