Anna Orlowski, JD
Chief Health System Counsel
UC Davis Health System

As Hospital Counsel for the UC Davis Health System, Anna Orlowski provides legal consultation related to telemedicine, managed care contracting, business contracts, and Medicare/Medi-Cal issues. Ms. Orlowski is a licensed attorney in California, Oregon and Washington, and has worked in the areas of professional and general liability as well as complex business litigation for nine years. Ms. Orlowski received her bachelor’s degree from the University of California, Los Angeles, and her juris doctor from the University of Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. As technological advances increase the quality and accessibility of health care, it becomes increasingly necessary for medical facilities to maintain an understanding of the legal implications of these new developments. Ms. Orlowski has been a valuable resource in developing the UC Davis Center for Health and Technology.
