

Communication

is the best treatment for chronic illnesses, including Opioid Use Disorder

Any chance you have to tell your patient "you did the right thing for your baby":

- Increases confidence
- Increases infant bonding
- Increases success of Eat, Sleep, Console
- Prevents postpartum depression

Chronic illness that is being treated does not require a social work consult.