The following is a listing of clinical conditions appropriate for point-to-point clinical telehealth consultations for adult critical care and pulmonology, with ongoing assistance as needed.

Critical Care Clinical Conditions
- General adult critical care
- Ventilator management
- Shock management
- Sepsis and other infectious diseases
- Surgical subspecialty critical care support
- Imaging analysis and recommendations for therapeutic interventions and/or diagnostic tests for any critical care condition

Pulmonary Conditions
- General pulmonary consultations
- COPD
- Asthma
- Pulmonary hypertension and pulmonary vascular disease
- Interstitial lung disease
- Pulmonary infections
- Bronchiectasis
- Chronic thromboembolic disease
- Imaging analysis and recommendations for therapeutic interventions and/or diagnostic tests for any critical care condition

Also available (check with Clinical Manager for more information and pricing):
- Up-to-date critical care or pulmonary lectures annually
- Web-based education on-demand
- Quarterly teleconferences to discuss case-specific issues, quality/safety analysis, protocol/guideline development, technical ICU or pulmonary lab management, technical issues, and/or general feedback.

Consultants: Christian Sandrock, MD

---

Level of Presenter Required:
Brief introduction from the treating provider when appropriate.

Video Equipment Required:
1. Videoconferencing unit

The following must be received before the consult begins:
1. Signed UC Davis Health Acknowledgement of Receipt: Notice of Privacy Practices form (new patients only)
2. Documented verbal consent from patient for participation in telehealth consultation

---

UC Davis Health Clinical Telehealth Program
For more information, call toll Free: (877) 430-5332
24/7 Acute, Inter-facility Transfers and Emergency Consultations: (800) 4-UCDAVIS