Nursing Grand Rounds Course Presentation Abstract

Each course abstract must be prepared separately and include all of the following information.

I. Faculty Information:

Name: ___________________________ Credentials: _________________________

Email (s): Home: ___________________ Work: _________________________

Telephone (s): Work: ___________________ Home: _________________________

Work Title: ___________________________ Unit: _________________________

If co-faculty, who is the main contact person for this presentation?

_____________________________________________________________________

Manager support for this activity has been obtained? Yes______No ______________

II. Proposes Course Offering:

Course Title: _____________________________

Course Description (include: importance to nursing practice, how your topic was researched, reference is made to patients, families, staff nurses, other disciplines, the hospital and /or policy makers)

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

III. Three Course Objectives:

Upon completion of this presentation, the attendee will be able to:

1.______________________________________________________________________

2.______________________________________________________________________

3.______________________________________________________________________

Questions? Call any of the members of the NGR committee.
Return completed abstract to Barbara Rickabaugh at Barbara.rickabaugh@ucdmc.ucdavis.edu or via intra-office mail to Center for Nursing Research, Room 4205, Main Hospital