November 11th Begins Weeklong Activities Honoring Veterans on Both Campuses

In recognition of the contributions and sacrifices of U.S. veterans, UC Davis is offering a range of activities as part of their “Honoring UC Davis Staff, Faculty and Student Veterans” celebration during the week of November 11-15 on both the Davis and Sacramento campuses.

Daily events include:

Tuesday, Nov. 12 – A noon presentation on “Brain Injury Rehabilitation Neuroscience Research and Development: Honoring the Spirit of the Warrior” by Anthony J.W. Chen, a neurologist with the VA Northern California Health Care System at the MIND Institute auditorium on the Sacramento campus. To reserve a space for the presentation, enroll online using your Kerberos password and selecting course number 07982. Boxed lunch will be provided.

Wednesday, Nov. 13 – A noon presentation on “Wellness and Reintegration for Our Veterans” at the Memorial Union on the Davis campus

Thursday, Nov. 14 – A reception from 5 to 7:30 p.m. in the foyer of the Facilities Services and Support building for all students, employees and their guests to recognize and honor veterans who are faculty, staff and students. To confirm attendance, please contact Benjamin Gamez at Benjamin.Gamez@ucdmc.ucdavis.edu or at 734-3068.

The AAMC is presenting a daily webinar focused on a different topic related to military health issues beginning on Veteran’s Day, Monday, Nov. 11. Registration is required. All seminars will be held from 9 to 10 a.m. Pacific Standard Time.

Please see the link below for more information regarding the webinars offered by AAMC as well as the weeklong events offered at both campuses.

For more information about the celebration or to self-identify as a veteran, contact Elaine Nakata in Human Resources at Elaine.Nakata@ucdmc.ucdavis.edu.