ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

University of California, Davis, School of Medicine
Department of Internal Medicine
Division of Nephrology

The University of California Davis, School of Medicine, Division of Nephrology is recruiting for a full-time position at the Assistant or Associate Professor level in the Professor (tenure-track)/Professor In-Residence Series (50%/50%). The final candidate will serve as the holder of the Paul F. Gulyassy Endowed Professorship. Appointees to the Professor/Professor In-Residence series are expected to conduct independent research, maintain a record of consistent funding, and significantly participate in teaching and University/public service. The Paul F. Gulyassy Endowed Professorship is focused on the support of research related to the diagnosis and treatment of kidney disease. A specific and proven interest in research and teaching in the area of renal diseases is required. In addition, patient care/clinical nephrology activities will be required in this position. The final candidate will hold a joint appointment with the Veterans Affairs Medical Center at Mather.

Candidate qualifications include an M.D. or D.O. degree, Board Certification or eligibility in Nephrology, eligibility for medical licensure in the state of California, an established or promising track record of original research publications in journals of high impact, past or present principal investigator of funded research or evidence of ability to attain such and teaching experience in the area of renal diseases is required. Demonstrated leadership experience and the ability to adhere to policies and procedures is required. The ability to work cooperatively and collegially within a diverse environment is required.

The position may, at times, require the incumbent to work with or be in areas where hazardous materials and/or infectious disease are present.

A letter of interest, curriculum vitae, up to three representative reprints, synopsis of research plans (past, present and future goals), summary of teaching experience/philosophy, and names/addresses of five references should be sent to:

NephrologyUCD@gmail.com
Subject: Gulyassy Professorship, IN-02R-13

OR

George A. Kaysen, MD, PhD
C/o Alicia Sheppard
University of California Davis Medical Center
Division of Nephrology
4150 V Street, PSSB 3500
Sacramento, CA 95817

Reference: Gulyassy Professorship, IN-02R-13

For full consideration, application materials should be received no later than December 31, 2012. However, the position will remain open until filled through December 31, 2013.

The University of California, Davis is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of diversity among its faculty and staff.