JOIN US…this summer for the 2012 UC Davis School of Medicine Pre-Matriculation Program

Application period: May 7 - June 8, 2012
Offers of program admission: June 15th

Program Date July 6 – July 20, 2012*

Twenty-five (25) positions are open to incoming first year medical students to participate in the two-week Summer Pre-Matriculation Program. The program is an intense academic program that is designed to introduce the participants to the academic structure of the first-year curriculum. The courses that are offered include anatomy, biochemistry, physiology and histology and doctoring (case discussion)

Program participants will be involved with and get exposure to:
- First year course faculty that teach the pre-matriculation program courses
- Develop learning and test taking skills for the medical school curriculum
- Introduction to medical library and computer resources
- Develop social and academic relationships with upper classmates
- In addition to the academic exposure this is also an opportunity to meet 20+ of your fellow first year students and develop study groups before the start of the academic year.

Applications will be sent to students admitted to the incoming School of Medicine on or about May 7th along with criteria for program selection. Space is limited and all applicants will be notified of their program acceptance on or before Friday, June 15. If you have any questions please call or e-mail Gail Peoples, at 916.734.4122 or gail.peoples@ucdm.ucdavis.edu or coordinator, Germaine Kennix at 916.734.4118 or germaine.kennix@ucdm.ucdavis.edu

* Students admitted to the program are expected to fully participate in the entire program (Monday – Friday, 8:00 – 5:00 p.m.)
