Join the MIND Institute for observance of Autism Awareness Month in April. Learn about the most recent autism discoveries, and find out how you can help find treatments and cures. Activities are free and open to the public, unless otherwise noted.

Workshops for Spanish-speaking families of children with special needs
Saturday, April 2, 8:30 a.m.-1 p.m.
Panel discussion: “How fathers cope with a child with disabilities”
For Questions call: 916-703-0349
This panel discussion will be presented in Spanish.

Autistic Like Me: A Father’s Perspective Screening and Panel Discussion
Monday, April 11, 5:30-8:30 p.m.
Join filmmaker Charles Jones in a special screening of his documentary, “Autistic Like Me: A Father’s Perspective.”
Following the screening, a panel of fathers will discuss the challenges of raising children with special needs.
Reservations required: 916-703-0336

Distinguished Lecturer Series
A 3-hit theory of autism, focusing on prenatal stress and sex differences
Wednesday, April 13 4:30-6 p.m.
Presented by Donald Pfaff, Ph.D.

Assistive Technology (AT) for Fun!
Monday, April 18, 3:30-6:30 p.m.
This fair will include a discussion with young adults with disabilities and how they use AT in their extracurricular lives and hands-on demonstrations of AT devices.
Space is limited, please make reservations on our website.

Minds Behind the MIND Applying evidence-based strategies to classrooms serving children with ASD
Saturday, April 30, 9-11 a.m.
Presented by Aubyn Stahmer, Ph.D.
Using evidence-based practices in public school settings can be challenging. This presentation will discuss how community collaboration and input are used to guide researchers in adapting interventions for use in school settings. Early data looking at outcomes will be presented.

MIND Institute Open House
Saturday, April 30, 11a.m.-1p.m.
Please join us to hear about our current research studies and outreach activities. Tours of our Resource Center and Research Clinic will be provided.
Space is limited, please make reservations on our website.

For more information about these events: ucdmc.ucdavis.edu/mindinstitute/events/index.html or call the Resource Center at 916-703-0336