

Elena O. Siegel, B.S.N., M.N., Ph.D.

Clinical Interests	Organizational systems and work force capacity that support efficient and effective organization and delivery of health care/nursing services; translation of knowledge and the adoption and sustainability of best organizational and clinical practices in nursing homes and long-term care facilities.
Title	Assistant Professor
Department	Betty Irene Moore School of Nursing
Division	Betty Irene Moore School of Nursing
Center/Program Affiliation	Betty Irene Moore School of Nursing
Education	B.S.N., R.N., University of Washington School of Nursing, Seattle, Washington, 2002 M.N., University of Washington School of Nursing, Seattle, Washington, 2003 Ph.D., University of Washington School of Nursing, Seattle, Washington, 2006 B.S., California State University, Northridge, Northridge, California, 1980
Fellowships	John A. Hartford Foundation Atlantic Philanthropies Claire M. Fagin Postdoctoral Fellowship, Portland, Oregon, 2007-2009
Professional Memberships	Gerontological Society of America Western Institute of Nursing
Honors and Awards	Springer Award in Geriatric/Gerontologic Nursing, 2009 John A. Hartford Foundation/Western Institute of Nursing Geriatric Nursing New Researcher Award, 2008 University of Washington School of Nursing Hester McLaws Scholarship Fund, 2006 deTornyay Center for Healthy Aging Master's Degree Research Scholarship, 2003 Sigma Theta Tau, Chapter-at-Large, Seattle, Washington, 2002
Select Recent Publications	Siegel, E. O., Mueller, C., Anderson, K., Dellefield, M.E. The pivotal role of the director of nursing in nursing homes. Nursing Administration Quarterly , 34(2), 110-121. 2010 Siegel EO, Young HM, Mitchell PH, Shannon SE. Nurse preparation and organizational support for supervision of unlicensed assistive personnel in nursing homes: A qualitative exploration. The Gerontologist , 48(40), 453-463. 2008

Elena O. Siegel, B.S.N., M.N., Ph.D.

© 2017 UC Regents