

Mark Nguyen, D.O.

Clinical Interests	Dr. Nguyen likes to approach the patient as a whole person. His philosophy of patient care is to emphasize preventative measures and life style changes rather than drug therapy whenever possible. He believes excellent health-care is a strong partnership between the physician and the patient. He likes to build a relationship with the patient with trust and respect. As a physician, he works hard to provide the patient the appropriate educational tools and empower the patient to make good choices to improve health and prevent illness.
