

Huy L. Cao, M.D.

Philosophy of Care

I enjoy the scope of family medicine and the opportunity to care for the whole family. With patients of all ages, I serve as both educator and doctor. I not only strive to provide competent and compassionate care, but also to educate my patients about healthy behavior and preventive care. UC Davis is committed to providing quality health care to the community, and I am pleased to be able to provide my patients with access to their outstanding specialists, services and facilities.

Clinical Interests

Huy L. Cao serves as both doctor and educator to patients of all ages. He strives to provide competent and compassionate care as well as to educate his patients about healthy behavior and prevention. Cao's practice is based on the belief that optimal medical care requires a partnership between doctor and patient in which the patient takes an active role in the decision-making process.
