

James B. Sampson, M.D.

Clinical Interests	Dr. Sampson specializes in open and endovascular treatment of arterial & venous disorders, including diseases of the abdominal and thoracic aorta, renal and mesenteric arteries, aortic arch branch vessels, carotid and vertebral arteries, and the extremity vessels. He is a decorated active duty USAF surgeon with surgical experience in Chile, Korea, England, Kyrgyzstan, Iraq, and Afghanistan. He has research experience and interest in trauma resuscitation, vascular trauma, and simulation in vascular training and education. His clinical interests include vascular trauma, mesenteric vascular disease, and acute aortic syndromes.
Title	Associate Clinical Professor
Specialty	Surgery - Vascular and Endovascular
Division	Vascular Surgery
Additional Phone	Phone: 800-4-UCDAVIS (800-482-3284)
Languages	Spanish
Education	M.D., University of South Florida, Tampa, FL, 1998 B.S., University of Miami, Coral Gables, FL, 1998
Internships	General Surgery, Wilford Hall USAF Medical Center, San Antonio, TX, 1998-99
Residency	General Surgery, Wilford Hall USAF Medical Center, San Antonio, TX, 1999-04
Fellowships	Vascular Surgery & Endovascular Therapy, University of Alabama, Birmingham, AL, 2010-12
Board Certifications	American Board of Surgery, General Surgery American Board of Surgery, Vascular Surgery, 2014
Professional Memberships	American College of Surgeons, Fellow Peripheral Vascular Surgery Society Society for Vascular Surgery Society of Air Force Clinical Surgeons The J. Bradley Aust Surgical Society
Honors and Awards	Phi Beta Kappa, 1994 Distinguished Graduate, Honor Flight, 1995 Trauma & Critical Care Award, 2002

James B. Sampson, M.D.

Commander's Award- Basic Science Research, 2004

48th Surgical Operations Squadron, Field Grade Officer of the Year, 2009

USAF Meritorious Service Medal, First Oak Leaf Cluster, 2010

© 2015 UC Regents