The D & I Dialogues are a series of conversations that provide an opportunity to discuss critical topics concerning race, culture, gender, stereotypes, diversity, and multiculturalism in a safe, caring and professional environment. This series is open to the community and all interested in dialogue.

All sessions will be in the Cancer Center Auditorium unless otherwise noted below:

2018: HEALING THROUGH DIALOGUE

Friday, January 26, 2018
Social Justice, Bias, and the Practice of Medicine
Location: Betty Irene Moore School of Nursing - Room 1800

Thursday, February 15, 2018
The Experience of Women of Color at UC Davis

Wednesday, March 14, 2018
Racial Healing Circles at UCD Health

Thursday, April 19, 2018
The Trauma Informed Approach

Friday, May 18, 2018
White Poverty in America

Thursday, June 21, 2018
Two Spirit Healing Circles (Gender Diversity in Native American Culture)

Wednesday, July 18, 2018
Youth Empowerment and Education in Sacramento

Thursday, August 16, 2018
“Write to Heal”: An Interactive Workshop

Wednesday, September 19, 2018
Walk in My Shoes: Invisible Disabilities

Thursday, October 18, 2018
The Intersection of National Politics and UCD Health

Wednesday, November 14, 2018
Refugees in Sacramento

Thursday, December 20, 2018
Diverse Cultural Celebrations

---

Diversity & Inclusion Dialogue Series

Presented by:
A Subcommittee of UC Davis Health Staff Advisory Committee on Equity, Diversity & Inclusion

Sponsored by the Office for Equity, Diversity & Inclusion
www.ucdmc.ucdavis.edu/diversity-inclusion/

RSVP via EventBrite
Lunch is provided

For questions and suggestions please email us at hs-oeedi@ucdavis.edu