Moving, Changing, Growing...

This basket is provided to you by the employees of the UC Davis Health System to support you in transitioning into independent living. You will find items to start your first apartment.

As you transition, remember there are people in our community that care. It can feel lonely at times, but know support is available to you in our community.

Sincerely,